-Of Local Interest-

We call attention to the sale of the Fox property, near Danville, advertised in this issue of The Record. It is a beautiful piece of property, and a most desirable home.

April 14th. The Ideal Entertaining Co., which gave such general satisfaction here last year, has been engaged for a performance at the court house April 14. Remember the date. Further particulars later.

Good Impressions. Richmond Register:—There was once a man so fortunate as to dig himself out his own grave, but after reading his obituary in his home paper, he forthwith buried himself again not wishing to spoil a good impression.

State Executive Committee. Hon. J. Norton Fitch, of Nicholasville, was here Monday and tells us he is a candidate for member of the democratic state executive committee. Mr. Fitch is well known in the state, and is a worker who has done much for his party.

The noise at the meeting of a woman's sewing society dwindles into insignificance when compared to the racket in The Record office this week. Two machinists hammering away with might and main make it pretty lively for The Record force, but the work must be done.

Bluegrass Seed Will Be Light. If H. H. Millenmeyer, in the Lexington Farmer and Breeder says that owing to the extremely dry weather last fall which prevented the buds from forming, the crop of bluegrass seed will be light, and for the same reason, timothy will head out light.

Passing of The Old Soldiers. The rapidity with which the soldiers of the Civil War are passing away is indicated by the fact that the death of James B. Young at the Confederate Home last week, was the eighteenth in eighteen months since the home has been in existence.

Charley Hall desires to call the attention of the public to the fact that he is prepared to do the best roof painting, and can give better work and lower prices than any one in town. He has had much experience and guarantee satisfaction. Leave orders at T. B. Walker & Son's store. 3-18-04

A Reliable House. The old, reliable firm of H. H. Millenmeyer & Sons, the Lexington fruit tree and nurserymen, place their usual Spring announcement in this issue of the Record. They are absolutely reliable in every particular, and The Record cheerfully recommends them to parties wanting the very best at the most reasonable figures.

Stepp Kapt Tab. Stepp Conn, of Hyattsville, who is not only a weather prognosticator, but a close observer of all things, kept tally on the weather during the winter, and tell us that, up to March 12, there had been 112 days of cold weather, 35 snows and 24 rains. He says this is absolutely correct, and as Stepp said so no one doubts it.

About the Size of It. Capt. T. A. Elkin, who has just returned from Atlanta says he spent many nickles for papers while away to read of the Jap war, but he soon found that every "special" telegram was just alike, so he gave up trying to keep tabs on the fight. We had as soon read the "Congressional Record" as the war portion of the dailies.

"Cap" Grove Here. Capt. Grove, the gentlemanly conductor of the passenger trains, was here this week, having been summoned to testify against some parties for shooting on the train. Capt. Grove is one of the L. and N.'s most popular men, as his polite and attentive manner to passengers has made for him a host of friends.

Mr. Scheffold Here. Mr. Frank Scheffold, of New Albany, Ind., who put in the water works system, was here Saturday looking after the winding up of some business. If anyone wants a testimonial as to Mr. Scheffold's reliability, as a business man, or standing as a gentleman, it can be obtained from any business man in Lancaster. He is alright and understands his business.

Look at Your Mail. The Post-office authorities at Washington have fixed a penalty of $200 on persons for taking mail out of the office other than their own. All post masters are liable to make mistakes and get the mail into the wrong boxes, and the law is that people must look at their mail before leaving the office and if they have other mail than their own it must be returned at once. This includes newspapers as well as letters.

Over Half Full. The lake is now over half full, and Mr. Scheffold, who was here last week, tell The Record that it now has more than enough water to run until next fall even if not another drop of rain falls. Isn't that ger-ious news? It must be remembered that the past winter has been an unusually dry one. As the Spring rains have just commenced, or are due, there is not a shadow of doubt but that the "overflow" will be in use ere long.

Will Preach at Fork Church.

Dr. J. G. Bow, of Louisville, Secretary of State Missions, will preach at the Fork church Sunday, March 20th.

Fine Timber.

Leslie T. Bradshaw has bought of Ben J. Wheeler some of the finest timber in the county. This week he cut a popular that measured 36 inches in diameter and 84 feet from the stump, making 12 foot cuts. This tree cost Bradshaw $77.79 and will make about 10,312 feet of lumber.

Organ Recital.

The people are looking forward with much pleasure to the organ recital to be given at the Christian church this (Friday) evening. Mrs. Taylor, of Lexington, will preside, while the vocal music will be furnished by Mrs. Juliet Rogers, of this city, and Miss Foushee of Lexington. A small admission, 25c, will be charged to defray expenses. The church will be filled with those of our people who appreciate good music.

Died in Arizona.

News of the death of Mr. Ed Stevens, which occurred at Douglas, Arizona, last Thursday, was received with much regret by the many friends of the family in this city. Mr. Stevens married Miss Nannie Hopper, of Lancaster, about twelve years ago, and moved to the West. He held a good position with a rail road company, and some weeks ago was stricken by grip. He left his room too soon and pneumonia resulted. He leaves a wife and three little boys. The remains were brought to Bowling Green, his old home, this week.

Best Work and Lowest Prices.

The Conn Bros. are at work this week making some big improvements on some of our machinery. They are the best machinists in Central Kentucky, and can fix anything from a jack knife to an automobile. They have the only complete machine shop in Central Kentucky, and the fact that engines and machines of all kinds are sent them from all neighboring towns goes to prove their ability.

Robt. Beazley.

After a short illness, Mr. Robert Beazley died Saturday morning. He was widely connected in Garrard county, and was in his seventy fifth year. At one time Mr. Beazley was one of Garrard's wealthiest citizens. Funeral services were conducted at the residence of Dr. Walter S. Beazley, Sunday afternoon, by Rev. F. M. Tindler, of the Christian church. The interment took place at the Lancaster cemetery.

Lear.

No parents ever received more genuine sympathy on the loss of one of their children than did Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lear in the death of their infant son, William Victor. Although the little one had only reached the age of five months, yet he had become the pet of the household and the many relatives and friends of the family. He was taken ill of pneumonia and suffered for almost two weeks before the little spirit winged its way to the gentle Saviour who was awaiting it. Eld. F. M. Tindler conducted services at the family residence Monday afternoon and the remains were interred at the Lancaster cemetery.

New Court Officers.

After opening court Monday, Judge Bell appointed Mr. J. Mort Rothwell as Master Commissioner, and the latter made bond and was sworn in as such. Mr. Rothwell, who is a splendid lawyer, has the ability to fill the office, and it is a safe prediction that his work will be satisfactory to all concerned. At the same time Mr. F. Sautley Hughes, who held the office of trustee of the jury fund during Judge Sautley's term, was reappointed, made bond and was sworn in. Mr. Hughes' able work in the past certainly merits the reappointment, and in his selection Judge Bell displayed good judgment.

The Man For the Place.

A new member of the Democratic State Central Committee is to be chosen soon, and we have heard much favorable mention of our countryman, Hon. Sam D. Cochran, as the man for the place. The position is now held by Col. Jack Chinn, of Mercer. No member of the present Legislature was ever more faithful in the discharge of his duty, nor had the body a more honorable member. "Sam" Cochran is a man of whom Garrard county is justly proud, and his selection would give satisfaction to all. His courteous manner, thorough honesty and sterling integrity have won for him the utmost confidence of both democrats and republicans.

Amen and Amen!

A minister in a neighboring town preached a brief but beautiful sermon the other day. Here it is: "A word to you all. Post-mortem praises and love are in the air. People kiss their dead, but never stop to kiss their living; they hover over open caskets in hysterical sobs, but fail to throw their arms around their loved ones who are fighting the stern battles of life. A word of cheer to a struggling soul in life is worth more than roses of Christendom piled high on casket cover. The dead cannot smell flowers, but the living can; scatter them broadcast in their pathway, therefore, and pluck out the thorns before it is too late."

Friday night—Organ Recital.

George D. Burdett Here.

Upon hearing the statement, "George Burdett is here," every person would immediately say, "Well, where is George, I must see him?" And, judging from the many warm handshakes and expressions of friendship, no man has ever been more warmly welcomed back to Lancaster. For many years, Mr. B. conducted a grocery store here, and the town never had a more public spirited citizen. He has resided in Chicago for some years, but, like all the rest, wants to get back to Kentucky, as he said, "I want to live in a country where I can speak to people and they will speak to me." He is now traveling for a jewelry house, and meeting with much success. While here he was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jno. W. Miller. He left Tuesday to resume his work on the road.

Eightieth Milestone.

Mr. Henry Clay Jennings, one of Lancaster's most prominent citizens, reached his eightieth birthday last Saturday, and a number of friends gathered at his hospitable home to congratulate him and spend a most pleasant evening. Mrs. Jennings, who knows how to prepare a genuine, old-fashioned Kentucky meal, had arranged a most delightful spread, and those present say they never spent a more pleasant evening. Mr. Jennings has resided in Garrard all his life, and is honored and respected by a very wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He is one of the best-posted men in the county, and has always been a lover of good literature. In fact we doubt if one in the county is better versed on Shakespeare or other standard works. The Record joins in wishing him many more years of good health.

Three Prayers.

Three Methodist ministers, as they were dining together, talked about short prayers. "A prayer short as it was irreverent" said the first, "was offered up by a soldier before the battle of Waterloo. It was this: 'O, God, if there be a God, save my soul if I have a soul.'" "That prayer" said the second minister, "resembles one composed by Bishop Atterbury in the early part of the eighteenth century. It was a prayer for the soldiers about to engage in battle, and it was brief and impressive. 'O, God, if, in the day of battle I forget Thee, do not Thou forget me.'" The third minister, after a moment or thought, smiled and said: "When I was a lad one day dined with two strange aunts. They set me at the head of the table and bade me say grace. I was taken aback for I knew no grace to say, but a text popped into my mind. I rattled it off and after it was over, realized that it was appropriate enough. It was: 'O, Lord, open Thou our lips and our mouths shall show forth Thy praise.'"

Geo. E. Jennings.

The subject of this sketch was born in Garrard county Dec. 19, 1828 and was consequently seventy-six years of age. He had been in poor health for some time, but was not considered dangerous until a few days preceding his death. He leaves a wife and three grown daughters to grieve for him. He leaves also a twin sister, Mrs. A. B. Brown, to whom he was devotedly attached, Mrs. Baylor Jennings, Mrs. Sallie Collins and A. R. Jennings all now living in Spencer county. He served four years in the Union army fighting the battles of his country and his comrades on the field bear testimony of his valor and courage. He was a member of the Fair View church and was one of its most active and liberal spirits. Uncle George, as he was affectionately called was a good man in the truest sense of the word, a kind husband and a devoted father. He has been called to his reward and henceforth there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness. He served his master well and his welcome at the Celestial city was a happy one. Out of shadow into sunshine, He awaits your coming. Let us say, "Rest on, dear one, rest."

Rabbit's Foot Talk.

Dare you walk under a ladder? Would you sit thirteen at a table? What are your views regarding the opening of umbrellas indoors?

A Miss Freda Lowthers, of Belleville, Ill., gave a superstitious birthday party on the thirteenth day of the month. The first number on her papa's house is thirteen. The young woman invited thirteen couples and sat them thirteen at a table. The side board mirror was cracked. Salt was spilled during the meal and not thrown over the shoulder. Umbrellas were raised in the parlor. The guests walked under ladders. Gifts of pins and edged tools were accepted and a negro "mammy" with bluegums, placed a "hoodoo" on the entire company. Are you superstitious?

Do you plant corn or potatoes in the "dark of the moon?" Do you begin many important enterprises on Friday? Dare you turn a shirt after you put it on wrong side out? Do you believe any good comes from seeing the moon over your right shoulder? Did you ever put your hand on a hunchback's deformity "just for luck?" Speak out manfully and womanfully. There isn't a human being anywhere who isn't superstitious about something. It may be only a belief in the potency of a buckeye carried in the pocket as a warder off of rheumatism but it exists.

Wanted, 99 hemp brakes.

W. B. West.

We call attention to the announcement, in this issue of Hon. John D. Carroll for Appellate Judge. Judge Carroll, who is one of the best lawyers in the state, is receiving much encouragement and his friends say he is a sure winner. As the article states, he is eminently qualified for the position.

Circuit Court.

The March term of the Circuit Court convened, Monday, with His Honor, Judge W. C. Bell, on the bench. In his charge of the grand jury, he dwelt on the various violations of the law, calling attention to those things which needed especial attention. Although he has warned the Garrard county wool sack for only a few days, we have heard many compliments from both the people and lawyers as to his absolute fairness and splendid ability as a judge. His courtesy to attorneys and litigants has added to his already long list of Garrard friends, and The Record predicts a most satisfactory and pleasant administration by the Mercer gentleman. Hon. Chas. Harden, the new Commonwealth's Attorney, was on hand and has displayed great ability and splendid skill in looking after the people's side of the case in the trial of those who have violated the laws. Mr. Harden, who is a splendid lawyer, is a gentleman who makes it pleasant for those about him, and while keeping an eagle eye out for his side of the case is always ready to treat those in the clutches of the law with all fairness.

Quite a number of little cases have been disposed of, and the grand jury has buckled down to work like it was going to make the way of the transgressor hard. The civil business is lighter than in many years, and will not amount to a row of pins, that is so far as the "picking" for the lawyers is concerned.

The juries are as follows:

Grand Jury.
G. A. Bowling, Fmn	J. W. Woods
J. W. Huffman	J. G. Burnside
C. S. Ballew	G. B. Huffman
W. N. Grow	Geo. F. Brown

CENTRAL RECORD.

LOUIS LANDRAM.
Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second-Class Mail Matter.
Lancaster, Ky., March 18, 1904.

In Springfield, Ohio, where the whites shot to death and hanged the body of a negro, last week, the people will now doubtless cease to condemn the Kentuckians for handling Rastus when he oversteps his bounds, or, in other words, when he gets out of his place. Springfield is the headquarters of "The National Anti-Lynch and Law Association," that meets monthly, and never fails to shoot the hooks into Kentucky and the South when our people hang or burn at the stake a negro fiend who has outraged a woman or murdered a white man. Down this way, only the guilty are made to suffer, however, and no respectable colored man or woman is mistreated in any manner. Our good friends over the river should remember that charity begins at home.

It is gratifying to his newspaper brethren to see the wonderful support which is rallying to Editor E C Smith, who has announced as a candidate for Congress in the Carrollton district. He is the editor of the Carrollton Democrat, which paper has labored in and out of season for the upbuilding of that section of the State. Such a man as Ernest Smith will be an honor to the district, and he should be nominated and elected.

The members of the Legislature, which adjourned Tuesday, were given more big suppers and dinners than any previous body were asked to get on the outside of. The newspaper men are anxious to know how much all that good "grub" increased the waist measure of Harry McCarthy, of the Nicholasville Journal.

It has been shown by the Congressional investigation committee that Mormon Prophet Smith has 8 wives. Any man who has successfully withstood eight pair of cold feet during the many cold nights of the present exceptionally long winter should be granted a pension by the government.

It seems that the colleges are going to turn out something beside foot ball and base ball players. The guides who will operate the push chairs at the World's Fair will be selected from students of the Universities of the United States.

Good Spirits.
Good spirits don't all come from Kentucky. Their main source is the liver and all the fine spirits ever made in the Blue Grass State could not remedy a bad liver or the hundred-and-one ill effects it produces. You can't have good spirits and a bad liver at the same time. Your liver must be in fine condition if you would feel buoyant, happy and hopeful, bright of eye, light of step, vigorous and successful in your pursuits. You can put your liver in fine condition by using Green's August Flower—the greatest of all medicines for the liver and stomach and a certain cure for dyspepsia or indigestion. It has been a favorite household remedy for over thirty-five years. August Flower will make your liver healthy and active and thus insure you a liberal supply of "good spirits." Trial size 25c; regular bottles, 75c. At all druggists. 1 Aug

Mr W L Glass, our hustling merchant has returned after a weeks' stay in Lexington, Flemingsburg and other points where he went on business. During his absence Mrs Glass and little daughter, Mary Lee, visited relatives in Jessamine.

One of the saddest deaths that has ever occurred in this vicinity, was that of Dr G A Traylor, which took place Wednesday, March 9th. He had only been here four years, but had made many friends, and his loss was almost universally felt not only in his profession, but also in the church, where he was a most earnest and devoted worker. He was a most consistent Christian, and his influence will long be felt, but while his death was certainly a loss to us, it will only be his gain, as we know he has only gone to receive the reward for which he has so earnestly striven. The remains were sent to Columbia to be laid beside his mother, there to await the Resurrection Morn.

The following resolutions were passed Sunday by the Bryansville Methodist Sunday School on the death of Dr G A Traylor which occurred Wednesday, March 9, 1904. Dr G A Traylor has been suddenly called from our midst into eternity. Therefore be it resolved:

1st That we, as a Sunday School assembled, express our appreciations of his consistent Christian character, his faithfulness and punctuality in Sunday School work, our feeling of to enter and realization of the sacred duty to the Sunday School.

2d That we will endeavor to remember and practice the wise counsels he gave us from time to time and bow in submission to this act of Providence.

3rd That these resolutions be copied and published in the Central Record and Danville Advocate. Rev W D Willburn, W J Hogan, Supt., Mayme L Ballard, Sec'y.

One Woman

In ten thousand may have the opportunity to indulge her taste for outdoor sports. The nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine others must remain shut in to a sort of perpetual slavery, from which there is no escape. It is these shut-in women who suffer most from womanly diseases, and who, when they are cured and made strong by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, are eager to point the way of health to some other sufferer.

"I do not wonder that you call your medicine the 'Favorite Prescription' after the help it has been to me," writes Miss Bertha Ebbett, Treasurer 'Young People's Society' of Christian Endeavor, First Presbyterian Church, residing at 1600 East 10th Street, Kansas City, Mo. "Was so weak and sick I could hardly raise my head, having constant backache and headache. Two bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicine made me a well woman, and since then it has been my 'Favorite Prescription,' too. Have advised a number of my friends who were suffering to use it, and have been gratified that it has helped all without exception."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It is unequalled as a tonic for run-down, worn-out women.

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr W J Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results. Sold by Ebbett's Drug Store."

Look At These Figures.

Some of those business (?) men who say advertising does not pay should ponder over the following figures, which sums are paid annually for advertising in newspapers alone, not on fence post, program and other fakes, but in bona fide newspapers. Read this:

American Tobacco Company, $1,000,000; Dr. Pierce, $750,000; C I Hood & Co., $750,000; Peruna Company, $500,000; Castoria, $500,000; National Biscuit Company, $500,000; Force Food Company, $500,000; Procter & Gamble Ivory soap, $500,000; Lydia Pinkham, $350,000; Scott & Brownie, $320,000; Royal Baking Powder, $250,000. Total, $6,450,000.

Inflammatory Rheumatism Cured.

William Shaffer, a brakeman of Dennison, Ohio, was confined to his bed for several weeks with inflammatory rheumatism. "I used many remedies," he says, "Finally I sent to McCaw's drug store for a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, at which time I was unable to use hand or foot, and in one week's time was able to go to work as happy as a clam." For sale by Ebbett's Drug Store.

To the Voters of the Fifth Appellate Court District of Kentucky.

I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercises of franchises under the law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine. I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire. Very respectfully, JAMES E. CANTRELL.

"Do It Today."

The time-worn injunction, "Never put off 'til tomorrow what you can do today," is now generally presented in this form: "Do it today!" That is the terse advice we want to give you about that hacking cough or demoralizing cold with which you have been struggling for several days, perhaps weeks. Take some reliable remedy for it today—and let that remedy be Dr. Boschee's German Syrup, which has been in use for over thirty-five years. A few doses of it will undoubtedly relieve your cough or cold, and its continued use for a few days will cure you completely. No matter how deep seated your cough, even if dread consumption has attacked your lungs, German Syrup will surely effect a cure—as it has done before in thousands of apparently hopeless cases of lung trouble. New trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all drug stores. 1 Aug.

To Try Disputed Farming.

Mayfield Messenger—The large mass meeting held in the court house here Monday by the farmers of Graves county is an indication of the feeling among them on the tobacco situation.

This meeting developed two things. One is that only about one half crop of tobacco should be planted this year, and the second that the farmers should not be in too big a rush to sow their present crop at the present low prices. They are more convinced than ever that there will soon be a demand for it and that the farmers all over the dark tobacco district should hold on to it as long as possible before taking the present low trust prices.

The farmers are in favor of diversified crops and will try the experiment more this year than ever before. Many will plant at least one-half of their tobacco land in cotton and other products which will pay them better than tobacco and at the same time cut the tobacco crop short.

A Simpson county farmer boasts of a sow that has given birth to four litters of pigs within two years—forty-eight in all. He has received $240 for the produce of this one sow in that time and claims it to be a record breaker.

Reports in exchanges from all over the tobacco growing section of Kentucky show that growers are preparing to plant an enormous crop of tobacco this year. If it is a favorable season that will certainly mean lower prices on the crop next year. It will not be good policy to depend upon the tobacco crop alone.

Joe Hsie moved this week from the Levee to the farm on Winchester pike which he rented of J W Haggard, of Clark county. W W Wilson bought 36 1,100 pound cattle of J & C Fogg, at $4.60.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat.

At a sale in Ohio last week draft geldings coming 4 years old sold to feeders at $200 to $285 a head. When feeders can afford to pay such prices for horses for market there is nothing wrong with the draft horse business. But there were no stunted colts in the bunch that sold for these figures.

J W Parrish, of Midway, one of the leading tobacco growers of Central Kentucky, has just closed a deal with the Continental Tobacco Company disposing of his entire crop of tobacco amounting to 400,000 pounds, at 11½¢ per pound. The transaction aggregated $45,000.

The pure seed bill of Congressman Trimble to prevent the mixing and adulterating of blugrass, orchard grass and clover seeds with cheap foreign seeds is arousing the farmers to speedy action. Mass meetings and conventions have been held in many counties. Strong resolutions were passed in these meetings condemning the fraud that is being practiced on the farmer by unscrupulous dealers in mixing and adulterating these seeds.

In former times, says a writer in a farm paper, a cattle feeder could ride a single day in his own neighborhood and get together a bunch of steers that at maturity would equal the best Illinois or Iowa cattle now sent to Chicago for the Christmas markets. A present he would ride for a year and return home empty handed. Sooner or later these conditions will perhaps right themselves, for farmers must realize in the end that it costs no more to produce a good calf than a mean one, and that the demand for good ones is absolutely unlimited; for mean ones there is absolutely no place whatever.

To be a practical farmer one must look after the small details. One will take advantage of disagreeable weather, when he cannot work out of doors, to mend and oil all of the farm gear, see the double and single trees are all in good shape, with clips all right, see that his plows have sharp points and harrows sharp; also keep his stock in good flesh, so they will be strong, and ready to do a full day's work as soon as the weather will permit. Then when the first day comes you can plow and put in a whole day's work. While the careless, impractical farmer is getting ready, and many times he will go to the field with his gear tied up with strings; his chains tied with wire, clips loose, on double and single trees, and many times will have to stop in the middle of the field, go to the house for strings to tie his gear, or wire to tie his chains, or nails to fasten clips.

Nothing can be saved by selfishness.

Write about it.
Trade at home.
Be public spirited.
Take a home pride in it.
Tell of its business men.
Remember it is your home.

Trade and induce others to trade here.

When strangers come to town use them well.

Don't call your best citizens frauds and imposters.

Support your local institutions that benefit your town.

Look ahead of self when all the town is to be considered.

Help your public officers do the most good for the most people.

Don't advertise in the local paper to help the editor, but advertise to help yourself.

Don't forget you live off the people here, and you should help others as they help you.

Don't Wait 'Til Rush Begins.

As Spring approaches, of course you will want some papering done. It would be a good idea to see Milton Sneed now and have him do your work before the rush begins. He is better prepared than ever to do the very best work. You know him, and know that what he contracts to do he always does satisfactorily. Milton Sneed is the man to get.

MRS. JNO. F. LEAR

Paradise Regained.

I loved my love with a deep, deep love
Which words could never tell:
I yearned to own my precious dove.
In bliss with her to dwell.
But when I told her, "I'm too poor
To ask a girl to wed,"
She answered, "Oh, I'm not so snore!"
Then blushing, she said:

"If you love me and I love you
Why longer then delay?
Let's find a room that holds but two
And move right in today!
Since happiness is all we wish
We'll get a cozy nest,
With a folding bed and a chafing dish,
And Love will do the rest."

Tongue-Twisters.

Try repeating these sentences over as fast as you can and as many times as you can. See how your tongue gets twisted and how it makes you laugh:
I'm copper bottoming it, ma'am.
Six thick thistle sticks.
Flesh of freshly fried flying fish.
Two toads totally tired tried to trot to Tedbury.

Give Grimes Jim's great gilt gig-whip.

Strict strong Stephen Stringer snared sickly six sickly silky snakes.

1904-- World's Fair Line-- 1904

She Must Have Been a Kentuckian.

"Where are you going, my pretty maid?"

"To the World's Fair at St. Louis, sir," she said.

"Over what line will you travel, my dear?" said he.

"Over the 'Henderson Route' of course," said she.

"Why over that road do you go?" he said;

"For Free Reclining Chair Cars, sir," she said.

"And where flies this Palace of Travel?" said he;

"From Kentucky, through Evansville, in St. Louis," said she.

"You seem to be pleased with that line," he said;

"They are 'Good Service,' originators sir," she said

"I'm traveling another route—'tis as good," he said;

"You'll have to 'show me' kind sir," she said.

"All lines look alike to me," he said;

"I can only see one—The Henderson," she said.

"I need a helpmate, my dear," said he;

"Won't you travel to St. Louis, my wife, with me?"

"I doubt not a helpmate you need," said she;

"But the 'Henderson Route' Comfort Line—for me."

"Then, will you not come my way?" he said;

"No, I'm for the 'Henderson' any day," she said.

"Is the choice of routes worth more than my love?" said he.

"No! but the choicest of Routes is, dear sir," said she.

"How, then, can I wed you, fair maid?" he said,

"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit first," she said.

MORAL TO MEN—

This lady was undoubtedly accustomed to the best, and would have no other—Therefore—if you would wedded and happy be, "Get The 'Henderson Route' Habit" 'Tis a good habit to acquire.
